Mr. Andro Vlahušić the Mayor of the City of Dubrovnik

Dear athletes, coaches, referees, and all participants,

I wish you a warm welcome on behalf of the City of Dubrovnik. It makes us very happy to host sports events specially when younger people are brought together.

Dubrovnik has been giving its contribution to the Croatian Karate Union through its KAKATO Karate Club. This club has been under the leadership of Mr. Željko Perković for twenty years. It is also a member of Dubrovnik Sport Association through which we give all support and encouragement to the young athletes.

We are proud of our Iva Ursić's achievement as she gained silver medal at the 15th Balkan Karate Championships for she has given her great contribution to karate to become distinctive as one of the sports with the greatest number of trophies among national sports.

We are looking forward to the 16th Balkan Karate Championship for cadets, juniors and younger seniors which will bring together a great number of athletes, coaches, referees and participants from various neighboring countries. Thus young people from Croatia will have an opportunity to have fun together, exchange experience and compete with other young people from Slovenia, Serbia, Bosnia and Hercegovina, Montenegro, F.Y.R. of Macedonia, Albania, Greece, Turkey, Cyprus, Bulgaria, Romania and Kosovo.

We are really happy for their experience will be gained and shared in Dubrovnik.

Dear guests, I bid you welcome once again.

We wish you a very good luck in sporting competition!

Andro Vlahušić

2. HOST CITY: DUBROVNIK

Having visited Dubrovnik, the Irish writer George Bernard Shaw wrote: "Those who search for paradise on earth should come and see Dubrovnik".

Unique for its impressive medieval forts, churches, monuments and palaces, Dubrovnik is often called the pearl of the Adriatic.

More than a thousand-year old history of Dubrovnik made it a cultural centre of Europe. Initially a small community, the city flourished in no time and became the seat of the independent Dubrovnik Republic. The Republic mastered the art of seafaring and created a fleet on the South Adriatic which could be compared to the one owned by Venice in the north. History is present in the entire city, which is both a museum and a picturesque stage where cultural heritage and contemporary life meet. All houses and monuments have a unique value. The Old City is encompassed by medieval walls, which have been preserved in their original form and opened for visitors as Dubrovnik's major attraction. In 1979 the City was included in UNESCO World Heritage Site list.

When you find yourselves in Dubrovnik and promenade along its narrow streets and squares you will come across a large number of sights. To make a shortlist of many different places worth seeing is a real challenge. The Franciscan Monastery Museum houses the inventory of Europe's third oldest pharmacy (1373). In the Cathedral treasury the meticulously manufactured objects from the 11th to 19th centuries are kept, while the Dominican Monastery Museum houses the works by the 15th and 16th century masters of the Dubrovnik School of painting. A collection of objects of art, furniture, porcelain and inventory of the Domus Christi pharmacy are exhibited at the Rector's Palace, while at the Maritime Museum you can see the history of the Dubrovnik seafaring tradition. In addition to the major cultural institution in the city, the Dubrovnik Art Gallery, which has outstandingly rich holdings and organises prestigious visual art events, you will discover numerous private galleries which stage exhibitions of national and international painters on a regular basis. Numerous libraries guard the literary treasure which testifies to the rich history of the one time republic.

The Franciscan Monastery Library contains more than seventy thousand books and hundreds of manuscripts and incunabula, while the Scientific Library has one hundred thousand books including those printed before 1500. The documents from the time of the rise and fall of the Dubrovnik Republic are kept at the State Archives.

One of the main reasons for visiting Dubrovnik is definitely its warm, mild and dry Mediterranean climate. The average annual temperature is 18 degrees Celsius. Dubrovnik has around 260 sunny days per year, and the days without sun are uncommon indeed. With temperatures never falling below zero, snow is exceptionally rare. The rainy period comes in winter. Dubrovnik is protected from the warm and moist south easterly wind by the Island of Lokrum, and from the cold north wind by Mount Srđ. In summer the city is refreshed by the gentle north westerly breeze. Such climate is convenient for the varied and luxurious subtropical flora. Roses, mimosas and violets blossom in the middle of winter, and irises, narcissuses and geraniums in early spring. The air is saturated with fragrance of aromatic herbs, and the Elafite Islands and coast are covered by Mediterranean evergreen plants, pine trees, cypresses, vineyards olive groves and orchards.

The Dubrovnik Tourist Board invites you to visit Dubrovnik. Experience the uniqueness and harmony of our city and discover your own paradise in Dubrovnik.
