WELCOME / INTRODUCTION

Dear friends and lovers of Karate,

The Brazilian Karate, represented by our Brazilian Karate Confederation, has the honor of hosting, by the second time in the American Continent, the WKF Karate 1 Premier League.

So, we are pleased to invite you to the Karate1 Premier League which is going to be held in Fortaleza / Brazil, in 17 and 18 September 2016.

The Karate1 Premier League is a world event, which has begun in 2012, with recognition and support of the World Karate Federation which aim is to join together the best karate athletes in the world of Karate and its Continents.

In 2016 the Karate1 Premier League event will be held in eleven (11) steps, and the Brazilian one will be a new mark in this sport, because it will give the whole American continent a chance to experience such a great event and, at the same time, present to the world the beauties of Brazilian country.

The Brazilian Karate Confederation is, indeed, proud to host the Karate 1 Premier League, and along with the organizing committee, will make the best efforts to offer the participants a memorable event as our Karate deserves. We are waiting for you and your team to embrace and bright this event.

Sincerely,

Luiz Carlos Nascimento Cardoso

President of the Brazilian Karate Confederation

GENERAL INFORMATION

Even knowing that the Fortaleza Airport (Pinto Martins International Airport) is an international one, they offer few flights at the moment. Therefore, we suggest the participants should arrive in Brazil via Sao Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, Brasilia, Curitiba and Manaus, because from these places the flights to Fortaleza are better and easier. LATAM AIRLINES Company may offer several flights to Fortaleza besides offering discounts for the event.

To qualify for the discount the participant must enter the site www.latam.com and enter the promotional code of the event; Promotional code: 678689. With this code, the participant will have 25% discount on the airline ticket with arrivals and departures in the period from 09/10/2016 to 20/09/2016 .

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Fortaleza is one of the largest cities in Brazil (about 2,5 million) and certainly one of the most vibrant. Temperatures range from 23-31 C with rare exceptions. July - November has virtually no rain.

In Brazil, Fortaleza is also known for its crop of comedians and the forró music and dance, all gaining popularity countrywide. The city is perhaps the most popular domestic package tour destination, and Europeans are following suit.

The modern terminal building of the international airport Pinto Martins (Telephone +55 85 3392 1200) was opened in 1998. Services here include federal police, post office, health authorities, internet cafe, tourist information and travel agencies. Airlines fly to almost every major city in Brazil and also other capitals of South America, mostly via São Paulo. Today's flights can be checked online.

Direct flights to Europe:

- Daily to Lisboa by TAP
- Weekly to Amsterdam, via Natal with TUIFly, often cheaper if bought at FlyBrazil.
- Weekly to Rome and Milan with Air Italy.

Other international flights:

- To Lisbon via Cape Verde every Sunday by TACV.
- The Miami route keeps opening, closing and reopening again. Delta is currently having their go. Other wise the direct route from Manaus is an alternative to Sao Paulo.

Allow at least an hour for immigration control if you fly in from abroad. Double it if there is another international flight shortly before yours.

There are two nice city beaches, Praia de Iracema and Meireles. The whole stretch from the Ponte Metálica (aka Ponte Inglesa) pier to the fish market is paralleled by the Avenida Beira Mar, very nice for an evening stroll. A string of shacks line the beachfront, mostly good for drinking and people watching.

The best concentration of restaurants in town is found in the Varjota neighbourhood, especially along Rua Fredrico Borges and its side streets, starting some five blocks inland from Beira Mar. Thursday is crab day in Fortaleza, especially in the many shacks at Praia do Futuro.
